Personal Declaration

The working time regulations act 1998 ("the regulations") requires Rapid Improvement Care Agency to limit your average weekly working time to 48 hours unless you agree with the Agency that the limit shall not apply to you.

Rapid Improvement Care Agency wishes to have an agreement with you (which shall apply until terminated by notice) on the basis that:

- The 48 hour limit on average weekly working time will not apply to you.
- You may terminate the agreement (so that it would apply to you) by giving the person at the company to whom you usually report 3 months written notice.

Under the regulations, Rapid Improvement Care Agency must keep records relating to your working time. This is the case whether or not you reach an agreement with the Agency about waiving working time limits. If you accept the company's proposal, please sign below. This document will then serve as a record of agreement between you and Rapid Improvement Care Agency.
